

Keith L. Silver

Keith Silver is currently a Commercial Officer with the U.S. Commercial Service in Buenos Aires, Argentina. His portfolio of responsibilities includes management of budget and procurement activities, supervision of market research products, client counseling and coordination of Provincial Outreach and International Buyer Program recruitment activities.

Mr. Silver's long-standing commitment to public service includes previous overseas assignments with U.S. Government and international organizations. As American Business Center Manager with the U.S. Commercial Service in Tashkent, Uzbekistan, Mr. Silver provided critical business intelligence and a broad array of client services to U.S. companies new to the Central Asian market. Before joining the U.S. Commercial Service, Mr. Silver worked on the promotion of Foreign Direct Investment in Central Asia for the United Nations Development Program (UNDP) and Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD). He is co-author of the first Investment Guide for Uzbekistan published jointly by the UNDP and OECD. Mr. Silver also served as a U.S. Peace Corps Volunteer on natural resource management and small business development projects in rural Panama, helped a U.S. consulting firm capture more Multilateral Development Bank financed business and broadened the scope of BBC World Monitoring's economic and business reporting.

Mr. Silver is a native of New England. He earned a Master's degree in Law and Diplomacy from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University in 1995. His Bachelor of Arts degree was received magna cum laude in International Administration and Political Science from New England College in 1990. Keith and his wife, Margarita, have one daughter.